The Belen project will be located in the Hatay province, along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea which is one of the windiest areas of Turkey. During 2007, Vestas delivered wind turbines with a total capacity of 41 MW to the Turkish market, and the prospects for development of wind power in Turkey are very positive.

The order has been placed by, BELEN Elektrik Üretim A.Ş., a subsidiary of Gürış İnşaat ve Mühendislik A.Ş., which is one of the oldest construction companies in Turkey, with more than 50 years of experience and 5,000 employees. Being No. 1 in Modern Energy, Vestas will be one of the key suppliers of wind turbines in the Turkish market,” says Murat Onuk, General Manager of Vestas Türkiye.

With an estimated annual production of approx 115 GWh, the Belen wind power plant will save the environment from more than 53,000 tons of CO₂ and will be able to meet the electricity needs of more than 18,000 Turkish households¹.

Delivery is scheduled to start in the last quarter of 2008, and the project will be completed by the second quarter of 2009.
